

LCAI 2019 GENERAL CONTRACTORS

Louisiana Economic Development is excited to announce the return of the Louisiana Contractors Accreditation Institute's General Contractors Seminar. Registration is open and ends on February 25. Seats are reserved on a first-come, first-served basis and the seminar starts on March 11. This seminar will provide a technical understanding of what is essential for a general contractor in today's construction industry. To learn more about LCAI's General Contractors Seminar and apply, go to opportunitylouisiana.com/LCAI-GC.

For more information, contact Cory Morgan of LED at 225.342.4317 or Cory.morgan3@la.gov; or contact Marlene Chauvin of LCTCS at 985.448.5915 or marlene.chauvin@fletcher.edu

 LEARN GENERAL CONTRACTING from INDUSTRY EXPERTS	The LCAI General Contractors Seminar provides a technical foundation for general contracting. Learn from industry professionals about site work, demolition, construction, foundations, formwork and more through interactive and distance learning. All in just 10 weeks. Learn more at opportunitylouisiana.com/LCAI-GC
 IMPROVE your GENERAL CONTRACTOR SKILLS	Are you a licensed general contractor? Join us for the LCAI General Contractors Seminar to sharpen your skills and stay up to date with advice from industry experts. Learn more at opportunitylouisiana.com/LCAI-GC.
 LEARN GENERAL CONTRACTING at a LOCATION NEAR YOU	The LCAI General Contractors Seminar can be accessed at several locations throughout the state through interactive and distance learning and taught by industry experts. Learn more at opportunitylouisiana.com/LCAI-GC.